

Growing Your Business by Keeping Customers Loyal and through Community Advocacy

Tuesday, February 23, 2010

Harford Community College's Chesapeake Center

6:30-9:00 PM

Cost: Free

The keynote speaker will be Bruce Lewis, owner of Total Urgent Care (located in Edgewood) and member of the Harford County Human Relations Commission.

We will also be presenting the 2010 Minority Leadership Recognition Award to Sarah Ortiz-Brown, Chief Managing Officer/Owner of Bliss Restaurant & Wine Bar. The award is a full paid scholarship to the Harford Leadership Academy. The scholarship is sponsored by the Harford County Office of Economic Development.

There is no cost to attend, however we are seeking sponsors. Sponsorship will enhance visibility and standing in the community. Hot and cold hors d'oeuvres will be served.

Click here to RSVP

or call 443-412-2237 ext 1.

If the link does not work, go to www.harford.edu/sbdc, click on Programs and click the link under Minority Business Assistance Program.

Bruce Lewis is founder, President and CEO of Total Urgent Care (www.totalurgentcare.com), a walk-in urgent care clinic located between Abingdon and Edgewood, MD. Mr. Lewis is a native of Chesapeake, VA, and attended Morgan State University on a football scholarship, graduating in 1991 with a Bachelor of Science degree in biology. After working as a lab technician for Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center at the National Institute on Drug Abuse in Baltimore, MD, he graduated from Anne Arundel Community College's School of Allied Health as a Physician Assistant.

Mr. Lewis currently serves on the Harford County Human Relations Commission, is President of the Harford County Chapter Morgan State University National Alumni Association, serves on the Edgewood Middle School Alternative Governance Board, and is the Medical Advisor for Harford Community College's Medical Assistant Program. He has always had a heart for mentoring children and young people. Mr. Lewis is married to Theresa, his business partner, and together they have 3 beautiful children, Ephraim 12, Timothy 6, and Jemez 4. Mr. Lewis enjoys fishing, football, reading the bible, and live music.

Act NOW, Click Here to RSVP

If the link does not work, go to www.harford.edu/sbdc, click on Programs and click the link under Minority Business Assistance Program.

Platinum Sponsor

Gold Sponsors